

Professional Certification Through Conover U

Tools for Success® Emotional Intelligence (EQ)

Professional Development

ConoverU is a virtual training academy for professional development and covers how to use Conover's internationally-recognized, research-based assessments and skill building systems for emotional intelligence (EQ), which is often referred to as Social and Emotional Learning or SEL. ConoverU offers online training courses for professional development for both professionals and paraprofessionals.

Emotional Intelligence

Emotional Intelligence is an eight module course that defines what EQ is, how you can improve your own EQ, and how to apply it to your everyday life so that it impacts you as well as your students.

Course Outcomes

- ✔ Learn the history of EQ
- ✔ Learn why EQ is the key to motivation and lifelong learning
- ✔ Gain an understanding of why it is so hard for some special learners to grasp the basics of social skill development
- ✔ Develop an understanding of how EQ impacts academic success
- ✔ Learn the basics of EQ assessment and skill building
- ✔ Take an online research-based EQ assessment
- ✔ Learn how to interpret assessment results and to utilize this information in the IEP process
- ✔ Take an online EQ skill building course based upon your personal development needs
- ✔ Develop a plan of action for teaching EQ skills in both an online self-directed course and an instructor-led course

Undergraduate and Graduate Level Credit

We take our professional development seriously. Instead of leaving you with just a program certificate, we give you an opportunity to get real college credit. Upon successful completion of the ConoverU EQ course you are eligible for undergraduate or graduate level credit. Once you earn your certificate, you complete a final course paper and submit them to an instructor for review. Instructors will grade all work and then award a grade for each learner who completes the course.
